FRIDAY, MAY 14, 1909

Soured Honoluluans who sneer at American steamship proposals for better passenger accommodation for Honolulu are emulating the Porto Rican recently convicted in the Hilo Police Court of being "a d— fool." Though they furnish passing amusement, they can't stop Honolulu from going ahead.

Has the Wind now completed its day's work in the completion of that lovely Naniua?

Average number of Japanese work on our sugar plantations are receiving more than $18 a month, than a less.

Eighteen dollars a month is a cry and is bounding many well-intentioned and industrious Japanese to similar rule.

Do you think to help Honolulu. You don't know who you are or yourself enough to handle the true or falsehood of the town and its people.

The men who talk to the sugar trust by reason of the present hurry to get the right as a free American citizen, but there is no money in it.

The Board of Education has a real work cut out for it, and the more speedily the three thousand available Portuguese are headed for this port, the better.

If the Attorney General can successfully carry on the duties of Territorial Treasurer without interfering with departmental efficiency, what's the use of having any Treasurer's salary.

It is good business and good morals; it is the duty the community owes to its children to equip them while in school for the work that will give them an honest living after the school days are over.

Agitators should be taught a lesson in the present strike that will not be soon forgotten. Let it be established once and for all that honest labor shall always have a respectful hearing but the men who stir up workmen for a livelihood, never.

It's very unfortunate that frequent reference to one hundred thousand immigrants and one hundred thousand tourists should cause any Honolulu person added unhappiness. The tourists and immigrants will come right along, despite the Honolulu hammer.

If you believe that the freight steamship lines should reciprocate by giving Honolulu improved passenger accommodations, let the people who operate the freight lines know it. The local steamer on which bookings can be made for a round trip with assurance that the passenger will get what he pays for, is the sort of service that will build up a permanent tourist business for Hawaii. If freighters will get the habit of handling passengers, it will be only a short time before the passenger trade will take first place.

THE EWA STRIKE.

Ewa plantation Japanese appear to have taken a middle-of-the-road policy on the strike question.

The announced readiness of the laborers to return to work on Monday, after they have presented their demands, and keep the plantation work moving while the management is reaching a decision indicates that the agitators have lost ground at Ewa and have not gained the confidence of the laborers by their impetuous handling of the strikes on Honolulu and Oahu plantations.

On the other hand, the fact that the men have gone out for two days shows the effect of the long campaign of misrepresentation and should impress the plantation interests with the necessity of a firm stand against any and everything that has any direct relation to the agitators, or snafus of their methods.

The Ewa Japanese have shown a somewhat decent regard for their employers and the great loss that will be occasioned by the tying up of cane cultivation and sugar manufacture. How much this is due to a sense of justice and how much to the severe losses the cane cultivating contractors will suffer if the strike is protracted each man may judge for himself.

WHAT IS NEEDED.

A lengthy statement has been published in connection with the strike situation that purports to be the views of a leading planter.

This statement may be well intentioned, but it is valueless in its influence on the community, because it has nothing more authoritative behind it than some impersonal planter who may know what he is talking about or may not, or in the esteem of the average readers it may not be a planter talking, anyway.

What will help the community more than anything else at the present time is a terse, pointed statement by the President of the Planters' Association or any member who may be intimately connected with the strike situation.

This statement should clearly put before the people of the islands the facts in regard to wages and also whether the planters in so far as they are able intend to stand out as a unit against the conduct of the sugar industry by agitators in Honolulu.

It should not require two columns of reading matter for any member of the Planters' Association to put the situation before the people in pointedly convincing style. And a declaration of this character will do more to unify the sentiment of all classes, and properly inform the misguided Japanese laborers than anything that has been offered up to the present date.

WHAT BECOMES OF OUR SCHOOL CHILDREN.

According to the statistics compiled by Superintendent Babbitt a very good share of the children who leave our public schools go to work. Nevertheless the showing is such that the most disinterested person can see the need for keeping a closer watch over the children, both while in school and after they leave, in order that the unfortunates unemployed may be reduced to the smallest possible number.

Mr. Babbitt in his letter to the President of the Planters' Association, reviews the figures that were given in a previous issue of this paper from information furnished by Mr. Babbitt. The most important feature of this letter is the statement that this is the first time statistics of this character have been assembled. It is needless to say that it will not be the last, and we may be sure that this first canvass of what is becoming of our children will furnish the basis for a great amount of good work in the future.

Mr. Babbitt's conclusions and suggestions are sound. The children who are each year going out to uplift or degrade the citizenship of our Territory should receive attention. An effort should be made to start them right after they leave school. If a boy is developing into a loafer it is worth a fraction of someone's time to find out if there is not some way of putting him to work where he can make something of himself and save him from jail.

When the habit is acquired of following the boy and girl after their school days are over, there will grow up a better knowledge of what the school lacks in equipping the young people to make the most of the opportunities about them, or, as Mr. Babbitt puts it, better prepare them for the work they are suited to enter upon.

All this is in line with the industrial training feature that should be more generally developed in the public schools.

The good work should go on.

An unsigned editorial in The Friend—they are usually initiated—breathes the following consolation in the Breckons case:

The Breckons fiasco has not rippled the surface of the smooth sea of life here but deep down an undertow plings:
"The mills of God grind slowly,
Yet they grind exceeding small;
Tho' with patience He stands waiting,
With exactness grinds He all."

And there we are content to leave this latest commentary upon the revised Bret Hartstein

OPIUM DEALER FINED

Two of the Chinese merchants who were arrested on a charge of selling opium without a license were before Judge Andrade this morning. Luey Kong Poo pleaded guilty and was fined $50 and $3 costs. The other accused, Lam Yoo Kee, waived examination at the Police Court and was remanded to the Circuit Court. The cases are being watched by a big audience of Chinese and Japanese, and much interest is being taken in the matter by them.

The Board of Supervisors will probably make an arrangement with some local livery stable to furnish a horse for the Building and Planning Inspector.

ALL ABOUT A TREE

The question reserved to the Supreme Court by Judge De Bolt as to whether or not the Government has the right to employ private counsel to prosecute a criminal charge was argued before the Supreme Court this morning. The case is that of Chang Chak Lai, who was indicted by the Grand Jury on the charge of having libeled the Chinese Consul. The Territory employed Attorney Humphreys as special counsel to prosecute the case, and the defense raised the point, for the first time, that this is contrary to the law.

'T WAS A YARN SAYS MR. OTOE SO

Editor Evening Bulletin:—I saw your paper last evening and was greatly surprised to read an article in which you state that "the strike at Aiea was prompted by one of the ministers of the Gospel. He did this in order to win the confidence of the Japanese laborers, so that when the proper time comes, he could induce them to become members of his church. The Japanese Buddhist ministers are highly respected by the Japanese people, because they attend to their business religiously. It appears from the yarn that there is sharp competition for religious followers."

Now since I am the only Japanese minister of the Gospel stationed at Aiea, I suppose this is meant to "strike" me.

Permit me therefore to state that he, as you justly say, a "yarn." Indeed this is the first time I ever saw this word in print and so I turned to my Webster and found that a yarn is "an exaggerated story of an extravagant nature told not for instruction nor edification but for amusement, e.g. A sailor's yarn." And so I am not so pained as you might suppose because your account is only a yarn, which no intelligent people will believe.

But in case some misinformed readers should be led astray, please permit me to say that I have had no relation whatever with the strike, have never attended a meeting of the strikers, nor advised, nor suggested anything, for I keep religiously to my own business.

Also may I state that I and the Buddhist minister are on good terms of friendship. Members also are good friends. We have no keen competition at all. Why should we? This is all a foolish yarn. Kindly allow this hastily written note a place in your columns and you will confer a great favor.

Yours servant,
OTOE SO,
Minister Gospel, Aiea.

Tonic After Typhoid

Mrs. Evelyn B. Barnard, of Kingston, N. Y., tells how Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey transformed her from weakness into strength after a terrible nine weeks' siege of typhoid fever. She regards this medicine as a life saver for her. The following are her own words:

"I regard Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as a life-saver for me. I had been down, nine weeks in the City Hospital with the terrible typhoid fever. When I was discharged, I was very weak and could hardly stand on my feet. I had read so much of your medicine and its cures that I resolved to give it a fair trial. I took three bottles on the 'start,' in two weeks I was able to walk half a mile without tiring, and I can really and truly say it saved me from a relapse. I still keep it in the house, as it is the only good medicine to have around as a preventative in any kind of sickness. I hope you will publish this, that others may know where to find a medicine that really has such merits. Yours very truly, Mrs. EVELYN B. BARNARD, Station B, Box 97, Kingston, N. Y."

FIFTY SUITS FILED FOR SEWER RATES

Delinquent Ones Will Be Forced To Pay

Fifty suits against persons delinquent in the payment of their sewer rates were filed in the District Court by the Department of Public Works this morning. These are only the first of about a thousand that are to be brought, unless those who owe sewer rates pay up at once.

The announcement that these suits were to be brought, however, has already made a number of the slow ones come to time. Before 10 o'clock this morning Manuel Cook, chief clerk of the Public Works Department, had taken in over $100 in sewer rates, paid by persons who had put off the evil day until they saw themselves in danger of being sued. Others have been paying up during the past few days, and it is expected that with the filing of this first fifty suits there will be a rush to the Public Works office of householders anxiously clamoring to be allowed to contribute their rates toward the running expenses of the Government.

EMERGENCY FUND.

tically settled that no fair appropriation will be made for the Queen's Hospital, the Board being rather in favor of taking advantage of the $150 per dien appropriation by the trustees of that institution.

But the use of the emergency fund will not be confined to the Queen's Hospital. The money will, in all probability, be available also for the Leahi Home and the Kaplanai Maternity Home. That such an agreement has practically been reached was the statement of a member of the Health Committee this morning.

It is believed that, with an emergency fund to draw upon, the Supervisors will be able to afford relief to all entitled thereto at an expense considerably less than would be the case were an appropriation made in bulk.

One of the reasons given by those who support the emergency fund plan, is that were the Queen's Hospital to receive the monthly allowance of $1000 asked for, the County would have no funds to assist either the Leahi Home or the Kaplanai Maternity Home. The latter institution presented a request at the last meeting of the Board, saying that, were the requested $200 a month not allowed, it would be necessary to discontinue the free ward at the institution.

Former Governor Carter, a member of the board of trustees of the Queen's Hospital, has expressed a belief to the Supervisors that a per diem arrangement would be the best for them.

Conferences will probably be held with the governing bodies of the Leahi Home and the Kaplanai Maternity Home, to ascertain at what rate they will take county cases, and then a sufficient amount of money will be set aside to cover such calls for county aid as it is estimated may be looked for during the ensuing year.

The damage suit against C. H. Rose, M. Melrose and J. S. Kuhlrich, which is brought by A. Borges, will be heard on May 25.
